

CONTENTS

Foreword	11
Preface	16

Part I

The Land, Peoples, and Cultures of Papua New Guinea

1. THE PREHISTORIC ISLAND, INHABITANTS AND CULTURES	21
A Brief Cultural History of New Guinea	22
2. OVERVIEW OF THE CULTURES OF PAPUA NEW GUINEA	26
Melanesian Values	27
The Traditional Melanesian Value System	29
The Present-day Melanesian Value System	38
Conclusion	41

Part II

The Religions of Papua New Guinea

3. DEFINING MELANESIAN "RELIGION"	45
Introducing the Problem	45
Culture and Religious Experience	47
Prehistory and the Religions of Papua New Guinea	48
4. THEISTIC RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE AND RELIGIONS	51
Cultures of the Gatherers	51
Key Elements in the Gatherers' World	52
The Economy and Social Relations of the Gatherers	52
Ideational Realm of the Gatherers as Revealed in Their Stories	52
The Theistic Religious Experience of the Gatherers	55
Documentation of Theistic Religious Experience from PNG Sources	55
The Symbolism of Naming the "More-than-Human"	56
Ritual Enactment of Religious Experience	59
The World View Implied in Story and Ritual	62
Concluding Reflections	62
5. BIOCOSMIC RELIGIOUS EXPERIENCE	64
Introduction	64

Cultures of the Planters	65
Economy	66
Social Relations	68
Ideational Realm of the Planters as Revealed in Dema and Flood Stories	69
Dema Stories	70
Flood Stories	74
Rituals	77
Rituals for Success	77
Celebrations	79
Symbolism	81
Ethical Implications	82
World View	82
Summarizing Biocosmic Religious Experience	83
6. SIMILARITIES AND DISSIMILARITIES IN THE TWO SYSTEMS	85
Summary of Theism and Biocosmism	85
Further Observations	87
Comparing the Two Systems	89
Differences in Relation to the Provider	89
Sin and Atonement	91
Rituals	92
Offerings	93
Power	93
Sexuality	94
Symbolism	95
Spirituality	96
Drawing Conclusions	97
7. CHARACTERISTICS OF MELANESIAN RELIGIONS	99
Chief Characteristics of Present-day Melanesian Religions	99
Drawing Conclusions from the Fundamental Characteristics	107
8. KEY BIOCOSMIC SYMBOLS	109
The Dema Figure	109
The Dema Figure in Anthropological Literature	112
Adolf E. Jensen	112
Jan van Baal	113
Other Authors	114
My Use of the Term "Dema"	115
The Dema Myth	116
The Pig Festival among the Simbu	116

The Biocosmic Religious Context of the Pig Festival	118
Tentative Analysis of the Symbols	123
Killing in the Context of the Festival	125
The Dance in Its Biocosmic Context	127
Other Elements of the Festival	127
Tentative Conclusions to be Drawn from This Analysis	129
Looking back at Part II	130

Part III
My Inner Dialogue with PNG Realities

9. INNER DIALOGUE YIELDS INSIGHTS	133
My Journey	134
Dialogue and Proclamation	134
Gaining Insights from Anthropology	135
My Starting Position Erodes	136
10. DIVINE REVELATION OUTSIDE THE BIBLE?	138
Are there Other Ways to “Know” God?	138
Revelation According to the New Testament	139
Missiological Reflections	141
11. THE HUMAN RESPONSE TO GOD’S REVELATION	144
Premises on Revelation and Culture	144
Sin	144
Re-reading Genesis Chapter 1 to 4	147
Missiological Reflections	148
New Understanding of Mission	149
12. THE OLD TESTAMENT AND THE RELIGIONS OF THE MELANESIANS	151
Wrestling with the Scriptures	151
Election and Salvation in the Old Testament	153
Election and Friendship with God	155
Salvation of the Gentiles	156
Theological Ramifications	157
Mission and Ethnic Identity	159
Anthropological Consequences of Yahweh’s Election	160
Tactics for Ethnic Survival	161
The Case of Israel and the “Other”	163

Yahweh's Revelation of God's Name	164
The New Testament and Biocosmic Symbolism	166
Summary and Conclusion	168

Part IV
Dialogue with the Religion of the Planters

13. ON THE ISSUE OF SYMBOLISM	172
Creation as Symbol	172
Evolution in Roman Catholic Teaching	174
Bible on Creation and the Fall	176
Original Sin and the Bible	179
Conclusion	180
14. CHRIST AND EVOLUTION	182
Analysing the Dema Story	182
Theological Reflection on the Story	183
Christ and the Dema, Freedom and Trust	184
15. KEY ISSUES FOR DIALOGUE	186
Overview of a Key Problem in Melanesian Christianity	186
The Ultimate	188
Consequences of the Lack of Dialogue	192
Points of Contact between Christianity and Local Religions ..	194
The Reality of Sin	195
Knowledge, Ritual, and Power	197
Knowledge and Power	200
The Issue at Stake	200
Analysis	202
Common Ground	204
Performance of Ritual or Human "Work"	205
Healers and Sorcerers	208
Ancestors	209
Spirits	211
16. POWER AND RITUAL	214
Wrestling with the Question of "Power"	214
Case Study of a Healer with Power	215
The Reality of His Power	217
The Healer's Rituals	217
Joseph's Theory of His Rituals	219

Concluding Reflections on Ritual and Power	220
--	-----

Part V
Challenges from the Religion of the Planters

17. THE DEMA COMPLEX AND THE CHRIST EVENT	226
Background	226
Description of the Dema Complex	227
The Myth	227
Key Elements of the Dema Myth	229
The Ritual	230
Analysis of the Ritual	230
The Dema Complex and Christianity	232
The World View of the Planters	232
Understanding Sacrifice	233
Sacrifice in the History of Religion	234
Reflections on Theistic Sacrifice	235
The Problem of Evil	236
The Death of Jesus Considered Phenomenologically	238
Corollaries of Our Comparative Analysis	239
18. WAS THE DEATH OF JESUS A SACRIFICE?	241
Jesus the Christ: Lamb of God? Dema of God?
Naming the Mystery	241
Origins and Meaning of the Dema Complex	242
Theologians Commenting on My Dema Theory	243
Dr. Christopher Garland	243
Dr. Theodor Ahrens	246
Preliminary Observations	247
“Sacrifice” in Papua New Guinea	248
The Issue of do-ut-des	251
Present-day Changes at Funerals	252
Conclusion	253
19. PROVIDENCE AND EVOLUTION	255
Introduction	255
Papua New Guinean Cultural History	256
The Religious World of Papua New Guinea	256
Providence within the Culture of the Gatherers	257
Providence within the Culture of the Planters	260
Theological Reflections	261

Our Culture Today	263
Pastoral Implications	264
20. WOMEN AND THE CHURCH	266
My Personal Journey	266
Role and Identity of Women in Culture History	267
The Discovery of Gardening	267
Sociological Roles	270
Male Reactions	271
Ideological Attitudes	271
Mechanisms of Protection	271
Social Mechanisms	271
Ritual Mechanisms	272
Ideological Mechanisms	273
Mythology	273
Stories Narrated by Men	274
Evaluation	274
Stories Narrated by Women	275
Evaluation	276
Conclusion.....	277
Epilogue	278
Maps	280
Bibliography	282
Index	292